Webinar Presenters

Cicatelli Associates, Inc. (CAI): Dr. Tony Jimenez leads all CAI’s Global Capacity Building efforts and serves as Director and faculty for CAI’s CBA Center our CDC Funded Category C - Capacity Building Assistance for High Impact Prevention. He also oversees the NYC and Mid-Hudson-Regional Training Centers (RTC) and CAI’s online instructional platform funded by the NYS Department of Health’s AIDS Institute. His experience in adult education, program managing, training and curriculum development covers a wide variety of areas such as: HIP- High Impact Prevention strategies, Human Sexuality, Cultural Competency, Human Rights, Systems-Strengthening, Organizational and Leadership Development, Multidisciplinary Team-Building, Behavior Change, and the implementation of Evidence Based Interventions. Dr. Jimenez has more than 25 years working in the field of HIV. During that time, he has provided technical assistance to more than 20,000 Human Service Providers across the US and 27 countries around the world.

Primary Care Development Corporation (PCDC): Henrietta Croswell, MPH, Program Director, joined PCDC in August 2012 and brings more than 15 years of experience in project management, health care operations, training, and behavioral health management. As a Program Director, Henrietta provides overall management and support to the CDC-funded High Impact Prevention (HIP) in Health Care program which also includes HIV prevention training and technical assistance to health care organizations across the country. Her expertise includes building capacity around program planning, clinic workflow analysis, patient-centered care, care management and navigation. In addition, Henrietta leads and contributes to projects on PCDC’s Population Health Management and Compliance teams and is a Certified Content Expert™ for the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) Patient Centered Medical Home (PCMH) Program. Henrietta has a Masters’ in Public Health with a concentration in Community Health Education and a BA in psychology from Hunter College in NYC. She serves as a volunteer American Sign Language Interpreter.

Denver Prevention Training Center (PTC): Mr. Tai Edward Few has 17 years of experience in instructional design, training delivery, program implementation, evaluation, and technical assistance. He comes to the Denver PTC from ICF Incorporated where he oversaw various training and TA projects for Federal, commercial, and non-profit clients. With both domestic and international experience, Mr. Few has designed and delivered curricula across the domains of HIV, chronic disease, social justice, and community health. Mr. Few was on the team that developed the implementation and training materials for d-up! Defend Yourself.

Armstrong Tingwane, MPhil: Armstrong Tingwane is currently the Managing Director of Prevention Services at Gay Men’s Health Crisis (GMHC), in New York City. He has more than 12 years of practical experience in supporting, coordinating, and managing community health programs addressing prevention, care, and support in HIV/AIDS, Community TB Care and Sexual Reproductive Health, health communications, capacity building and community mobilization with vulnerable communities. At GMHC, Armstrong provides strategic management, oversight, and vision to the expansive prevention portfolio with several federal, state, and private grants. His growing menu of services includes HIV/STI Testing, PrEP/PEP Services, Community Health & Prevention and Women’s Prevention programs.